

Qualifying for Medi-Cal is now easier than ever.

Starting January 1, 2024, assets will no longer be counted to determine Medi-Cal eligibility!

Having healthcare is essential. With coverage for medical, vision, dental and mental healthcare services, Medi-Cal can help you stay healthy. As of January 1, 2024, more people will be able to qualify for Medi-Cal now that asset limits have been entirely eliminated from the program.

This means you can keep more savings and assets while getting the essential healthcare coverage you need with Medi-Cal.

Read on to learn more ▶

What are assets?

Assets are things you own, including bank accounts, cash, vehicles, real estate, and other financial resources.

Do assets include monthly income?

No, assets do not include monthly income from work, Social Security or retirement payments.

What if I was denied Medi-Cal coverage due to asset limits in the past?

If you were found ineligible or denied benefits due to asset limits in the six months prior to January 1, 2024, you will receive a letter about the asset limit changes and will be given the option to reapply for Medi-Cal.

How can I apply for Medi-Cal?

HealthyAC.org

Community-based organizations near you are available to help you apply and will answer any questions you may have. Just visit HealthyAC.org today.

BenefitsCal

If you prefer, you can also apply on your own at BenefitsCal.com.

Don't miss out on the healthcare coverage you need with Medi-Cal.

Apply today!